Please tell us a little more about your cats or your breeding practices. For example, are you interested in offering breeding/showing mentorship? What colors do you work with? This information will be placed on your breeder profile page.

We are a small, family run, in home cattery located just outside Milwaukee, WI.

Our family has enjoyed these Elffin loving cats for 11 years. Our goal at Kiiti Kature is to breed beautiful cats that meet the breed standard. Health is a top priority.

Socializing our kittens early is also a priority for us. Feline behavioral studies indicate the first two to six weeks of life is the most critical time for socialization. Our cats and kittens are all raised in our home in a safe, loving, and healthy environment.

Above all, we strive to maintain a standard of excellence. We value quality over quantity.
